The Police Captain.

The police captain in New York is the czar of his precinct, and public virtue or vice prevails in his district in proportion as he is vigilant or lax in the enforcement of law. A police captain very quickly acquires a reputation among the criminal element in the city. If he is known to be easy going or crooked or a condoner of evil, if his own private life, represented by his talk, by his lax conduct off duty, shows him to be a man without high princi-ple, the criminal element will flock to his precinct. On the other hand, the people of the rogues' gallery will naturally avoid the precinct of a vigilant and high minded police captain in the same way as the rats will scamper into their dark holes when a flood of sunlight is thrown in on them.

The proper estimate has not been placed, in my judgment, on the posttion and office of the precinct com-manders. None but the best equipped men morally and otherwise should be chosen for this responsible position. Their salary should be made so large as to place them above temptation, and a strict account of their stewardship should be demanded.—Rev. A. P. Doyle in Outlook.

Not Ended.

"Ah," sighed the would be suicide, "here is where all my troubles come to an end!" And he sprang into the deep waters of the bay. He was mistaken.

For the life preserver hit him in the neck, and he saw a million stars. The deckhand made a pass at him with a boathook and ripped a small sized crevasse from his waistband to his collar bone. Then they hauled him in, thumped him, doped him, rolled him over a barrel for half- an hour and hustled him to the harbor hospital, after which he was arrested, fined $10 and roasted by the judge and kicked along the corridor toward the door. A dog bit him as he departed.

'Alas," he sobbed, "it is more trouble to die than to live!"-San Francisco Bulletin

A Homeless Community. Some people live in New York; others exist. It is certain that a majority of our citizens never owned a home. They live in rented flats or houses all their lives and do not know the meaning of possession. Many millionaires dwell in bired residences. Their homes are in other states, but they must be in

Fifth avenue during the social season, and they must keep house. Philadel-phia has been spoken of as a "community of homes." New York is a community of rents. More than half of our people don't know what it is to pay taxes. Their obligations of citizenship are settled by the landlord, who takes everything out in the rent. We are becoming a characterless mob.—New

No one disputes the fact that some other digestants partially accomplish this result. Pepsin, for instance, is found in the healthy stomach. When it is lacking, the patient takes pepsin and it helps him. But pepsin digests only albuminous foods, like meat and eggs. Maybe there's plenty of pepsin and a lack of the other digestants. Then it does no good. That's the trouble with the other preparations. They don't contain all the digestants. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure contains them all. It digests any good food you want. You don't have to diet. The feeling of fulness after eating is immediately releved by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

self respecting, intelligent people is sure to find adequate treatment in THE TRIBUNE, by text or picture, or both.

What is true of The Daily Tribune applies with force, though in medified form, to the other publications issued from The Tribune office. THE TRIBUNE WEEKLY REVIEW, issued every Saturday, orables persons living in the small towns or villages to keep in touch with the best thought of the nation, just as well as those at the educational centure. It records and reviews all the essential happenings of the week—the things that count in making up the ledger of progress. For eanding to friends abroad you cannot find anything better.

THE TRIBUNE FARMER is, as its name implies, devoted to the interests of farmers and their families, it is meant to be their friend, adviser and helper in the fullest meaning of the words, bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to sid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting reading matter for the women and young folks. $1 a year.
